THE SENIOR CLASS

J. W. CANNON HIGH SCHOOL

KANNAPOLIS, N. C.

DEDICATION

For the first time in the history of J. W. Cannon High School, we the Seniors of the class of '40-'41, are here dedicating this last edition of the CANNON REPORT to our parents.

After much discussion we decided that our parents are the persons most responsible for our education, and that they deserve some recognition of the work they have done.

Thus we pay tribute to you, mother and dad, and thank you for your sacrifices which you have had to make, your loyalty and devotion in encouraging us to make these past four years among the most valuable of our life.

CLASS POEM

Now we turn back to the past with a sigh,
Recalling the days at Kannapolis High—
The pains and the joys felt by Forty-and One,
The things we've said and the things we've done,
All blend together with mem'ries of you,
Our loyal friends, proved so faithful and true.

Our teachers, first, we shall never forget
How you've helped when our troubles we've met,
As the road, at times, proved so rough and so bare,
You were ever so ready to help us just there—
With hand so strong and a heart always kind,
You've taught us never the troubles to mind.

Classmates we, too, shall remember the days
Together we've spent—'n from our hearts we do praise
Friendship, so strong as to help with the load
Sustained as down the long highway we strode,
And now, do our hearts for the future enthrone
Rich memories of all the friends we have known

DAISY RUTH NASH.

HISTORY OF THE SENIOR CLASS OF '41

O gracious Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the great and many blessings for which you have bestowed upon us.

O Father, we thank Thee for the memorable year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-seven for which you gave power and strength to the class and made it possible for us to gather together for the first time in the J. W. Cannon High School Auditorium and gave unto us the name and duties of Freshmen: we realized, O Father, that we knew nothing of this new world and the way it was governed, and for this purpose you sent unto us J. W. Harbison as Chief Adviser and Mrs. J. D. Taylor, Miss Martha Hood, Miss Mildred Hutchinson, Mrs. E. H. Lewis, and Mr. J. G. Womble as class advisers—we thank Thee for each of these and for Bobby Ridenhour as our president, Earl Helms, vice president; Edna Mae Sims, Secretary; Frances Davis, treasurer. With these leaders you have given us we feel that you have prepared this great class of two hundred and ninety-two for the great task which lies before us.

Father—this great day has come again, in this, the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-eight you have again given this class the power to assemble together and bestowed upon us the name and duties of Sophomores. We thank Thee for sending unto our midst Mr. J. L. Dupree as Chief Adviser, Miss Martha Hood, Mrs. J. D. Taylor, Miss Nellie Alexander, Miss Margaret Franks, Mrs. Fred Dennis, Miss Helen Smith, and Mr. Paul Hudson as class advisers and for Farrell Roberts as our president, Edna Mae Sims as secretary and Bobby Ridenhour as treasurer.

With this wonderful group you have sent to us, we along with the other classes successfully held the State Student Council Congress here in our school. And Heavenly Father—we thank Thee for giving us the power to take part in our greatly improved High School Band under the direction of Mr. Arthur Rohr and also our wonderful Glee Clubs under the direction of Miss Nellie Alexander. Father, again we thank Thee for sending unto us for the first time the highly honored Quill and Scroll Society and for the enlargement of our school paper under the leadership of Miss Helen Whitley. O Father, with this year of vast activity behind us we stand eagerly waiting for a much greater task.

In this, the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, the great day has again come before us. As we eagerly gather together to claim the duties and names of Juniors, knowing, Lord, that this year is of great importance, you have sent unto us Mr. J. L. Dupree as Chief Adviser, Mrs. Thurman Frye, Miss Margaret Boylan, Mrs. June Morrison, Mrs. E. H. Lewis, and Mr. J. D. Taylor as class advisers and again we have chosen Farrell Roberts as our president. Earl Holms vice president Edna Mae Sims as secretary and Bobby Ridenhour treasurer. O Father, for each of these capable leaders we thank Thee and with the power you have given unto us we are eager to make use of it as a group and as individuals.

Knowing that our greatest event of the four years as a class is the Junior-Senior Banquet and in preparation for this eventful occasion a great sum of money was needed—so with your faith, Lord, we presented an unforgettable Junior Class Play "Yours Truly Willie" under the direction of Mrs. E. H. Lewis. Then came the Hallowe'en Carnival which was equally successful. Soon the moment came and we had chosen for the first time our own home town, in the Cannon Memorial Y. M. C. A., decorated to the theme of "Gone With The Wind." After the Banquet we gathered in the school gymnasium to dance to the music of Russ Greys Orchestra. This night was without a doubt one of the highlights of our life.

Father, to the individuals you have given power to bring honor to our class. We recall with pride Wylie Moore Yarborough who represented the Hi Y Club in Overlan, Ohio, and Farrell Roberts who was elected Lieutenant Governor of the Tar Heel Boys' State at University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. This, the unforgettable year of our career, having now drawn to an end, we pause to give thanks for guiding us so faithfully, and ask Thee to give us power the oncoming Senior year.

In this, the greater year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty, our class now numbering one hundred and ninety has gathered again to inherit the names and duties as Seniors. O Father, as we go into the last year of preparation we ask Thee to be with us and guide us. And, Father, we are grateful for Mr. John L. Dapree Chief Adviser, Miss Lorraine Gray, Mr. Harold Ostwalt, Mr. W. K. Cromartie, Miss Helen Dugan, and Miss Margaret Abernathy as Class Advisers. From our class we chose Wylie Moore Yarborough as president; Billy Whitley, vice-president; Helen Harrington, secretary; and Bobby Ridenhour as treasurer. With this capable group of leaders we start this year with a beautiful new and modern library with Miss Ruth Robertson as Librarian. Another great step was taken this year and the Diversified Occupation Course under the supervision of Mr. Cannon. Another highlight of this year is the "Art Hi-light" booklet edited and presented by the Art Class under the supervision of Miss Nellie Alexander.

For all these blessings we give our heartiest thanks, and remembering the phrase "where there's a will there's a way," we say—"we came, we saw—we conquered."

FARRELL ROBERTS.

P. S.—Also for the Seniors again as individuals, we mention with pride Harvey Turner and Bobby Ridenhour who made the 1st State and 1st Southern Bands and Farrell Roberts who was representative from our school to the Southern Association of Student Government in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and also served on the Auditing Board.

CLASS PROPHECY

Where am I? Oh, now I remember. I'm sitting here on a high downy throne looking toward a beautiful dawning, watching the things my classmates of '41 are doing at present. Ten years have passed since our departure from dear Cannon High.

In New York we find Dot McCoy, Dot Patterson, Lib Smith, Merely Alexander, Edna Sims, Mary Frances Overcash, Opal Mundy, Betty Sue Payne, Margaret Hudson, Geraldine Honeycutt, and Ruby Childers modeling dresses, bathing suits and milinery.

Nell Cashion, Hazel Blackwelder, Hazel Gatton, Lib Goodnight, Evelyn McCall, Hazel and Margaret Wellman, Margaret Owen and Helen McCall have turned out to be nurses in different hospitals. Dot Oates, Frances Daves, and Pat Orland—believe it or not—are lawyers.

In Paris, too, some of them we see Mary Brown, Bernice Freeze, Craynelle Clink scales, Doylen Walsh, Daisy Nash, Ruth Sherrill, Margaret Hardy, and Helen Sloop.

Among the pilots of our class we find Bill Wilhelm, Harold Puntch, Ernest Bowles, Clay Hoxe, Garlin Menseer, J. L. Collins, Allen Sather, Paul McManus, H. W. Owen, Ned Reese, and Marshall Rimmer. Billy Price is a mechanic.

Athletes who are now professional players are Fred Daniels, Lester Brown, A. D. Stricker, Hubert Mizer, Archie Nesbit, Jim Sherrill, Norman Hamrick, Ray Galliher, and Jason Honeycutt.

Frances Maughon is teaching at the "We Know It All" High School in Chicago. Mable Fisher, Elan Holloway, Janice Jackson, Ophelia Morton, Juanita Link, and Betty Pruitt have also followed the line of teaching.

Helen Harrington and Rea Huss are in the foreign countries as missionaries.

Miss Alexander should be proud of Marge Propst and Jo Suma Lindsay because they are doing a fine piece of work painting covers for the Cosmopolitan magazine.

Jimmie Nolan has followed in his father's footsteps. He is now head doctor at Duke.

Evelyn Guye directs an all-girl orchestra in the heart of New York. Merrill Hilton has out-danced the greatest dancer of our age.

After debating several years about what he should choose as a profession, Wylie Yarborough decided on becoming a band leader. Arthur Wooten, Charles Johnson, Feldman Corn, Johnnie Winecott, Billy Whitley, and Harvey Turner are head knockers in Wylie's band.

Irene Wilson and Virginia Edwell are successful nurses in the Philippine Islands. They are working toward improving the living conditions.

Pete Hudson and John Wyatt are busily engaged in the field of civil engineering.

Charles Ferguson has become editor of the New York Times while Howard Long is circulation manager for the Chicago Tribune.

Harold Delinger, Frank Glass, Earl Helms, H. C. Cuske, Curtis Patterson, Farrell Roberts, and Lewis Rogers are the outstanding political leaders of the day.

Charles and Luther Skiep have a modern way of farming, and they have as helpers: Herman Cooke, E. F. Demarcus, David Duncan, Alton Eddleman, Carl Spry, and Calvin Wood.

Lillian Youngs has out-debated the champion debater.

Let's see. As beauticians we find Bonnie Beck (Mrs. Elmer Ketner), Katherine Smith, Lennie Tilley, Juanita Williams, Dorothy Hartis, and Mildred Williams.

Frankie Wellman, Dot Carter, and Frances Trammell, as well as Ruth Coan and Audrey Hall, have become nationally known because of their feature articles in leading papers.

Among the best secretaries of the country we find: Betty Morrison, Bonnie Gettys, Mildred Gibbons, Edith Stuart, Edith Dancy, Mary Sills, Peggy Penninger, Frances Orland, Nela Nichols and Wilma Green Belk. John Longac has also entered this field.

After finishing high school Roy Deyton has finally settled down to a quiet and peaceful life.

Dolphus Tidwell is still breaking the feminine hearts at large, and John Triage and Ned Reece are also still much-sought-after bachelors.

W. H. Brown has turned out to be a successful dentist.

Ruth Edmiston, Delphine Hudson, Jean Dove, Dot Sims, Lorene Sifford, and Ruth McBride have become the most famous skaters in the United States.

Cannon High turned out some girl athletes as well as boys. Some of them are Mildred Taylor, "Tom" Scarboro, and Willene Lackey.

Otho Freeze and Dot Benson have joined the circus as regular troopers. Otho is the strong man and Dot is the Modern Venus.

Faynell Christy has become a Florida bathing beauty.

Working in Norris Dearmon's A & P store we see: C. D. Pennington, Earl Ketner, Kiolen Krider, and Elmer Ketner.

Creola Durham is a model for Glenn Bost's modeling agency.

Vernon Avant is head stage manager at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York and as his fellow workers: Robert Fowler, Jack Larr, Paul Goodman and Robert Milstead.

June Hurst and Charles Bryant are climbing the ladder to success with the Cafe businesses.

Kathleen Carter is another of those accomplished secretaries.

Melba Triage and Ruby Tyson run a Shoe Store entitled, "We fittem, you wearum."

Very contented housewives from the class of '41 are Blondine Spry, Alice Smith, Catherine Overcash, Gaynelle Cooke, Ruth Ballard (Mrs. Charlie Cassell), Gladys Pethel, Rosa Nell Teal, and Lamina Riggs.

In Pennsylvania we find, as head saleswomen, Orella Falls, Kathleen Deal, Violet Parker, Irelle Fowler, and Fay Ellen Mullis.

Mary Lee Tesh and Frances Payne are co-owners of a luxurious perfume shop in New York.

Frank Perry has become professor of music at Davidson College.

Cleo Ketner, Ruth Griffith and Cornelia Hess are prominent dress-makers.

Emma Phillips and Mary Lee Nantz have become very efficient librarians.

Julia Ann McKnight has originated a new grading system for schools. Bobby Ridenhour and Ralph Barnhardt helped her in this worthwhile project.

Mary Elizabeth Brown and Lucille Carraway have joined the throng as housewives.

Wilma Alexander and Margaret Armstrong have become welfare nurses.

Frederick Glass has engaged himself with writing comic strip books. Everett Hampton, Harold Hinson, and Richard Cannon work in the different departments helping him.

Homer Brinkley is sailing the high seas as captain of the Mermaid.

I could hear my name being called from far away. It was then that I discovered that Mother was trying to wake me so that I wouldn't be late for school. My! What a pleasant dream it had been!
